

Multimodal Research and Publishing Workshop

Berlin, 19-20 June 2023

Monday, 19 June 2023 @ ZOIS, Anton Wilhelm Amo Straße 60, 2nd floor – Library

10.00-10.30 – Registration and welcome coffee

10.30-12.30 – Introduction to multimodal research (Alexandra D’Onofrio)

12.30-13.30 – Lunch (all vegetarian, vegan and gluten-free options available)

13.30-15.00 – Multimodal knowledge bases, open archives, and the ways to link our data (Christos Varvantakis)

15.00-15.30 – Coffee & cookies break

15.30-17.00 – Multimodal publishing – options and considerations (Alexandra D’Onofrio)

17.00-17.15 – Espresso break

17.15-18.45 – Sound recording for multimodal research - essentials & tricks (Alfred Tesler)

19.30 – Dinner

Tuesday, 20 June 2023 @ DeZIM, Mauerstraße 76, 3rd floor Event Space

9.00-10.30 – Sensory explorations of futures - lab (Alina Apostu)

10.30-11.00 – Coffee break

11.00-12.30 – Panel 1: Transnational Meaning & Belonging (Chair: Alexandra D’Onofrio)

- Andrea Cortés Saavedra (UCL): An entanglement of different means of making meaning: An ethnographic study in a school in northern Chile
- Antonio Montañés Jiménez (Univ. of Oxford): Exploring the political affordances of recorded life-stories: Memory, stigma and Romani communities
- Karolina Nikielska-Sekuła (Centre of Migration Research, Univ. of Warsaw): Sensing Belonging by Labour Migrants from Poland to Norway: Towards Embodied Transnational Belonging
- Siyun Wu (Leiden Univ.): Fantasia of the Nobodies: Mushrooming, Music Heritage and Skilled Intimacy in Estonia

12.30-13.30 – Lunch (all vegetarian, vegan and gluten-free options available)

13.30-15.00 – Panel 2: Conflict, Migration, and New Technologies (Chair: Iepke Rijcken)

- Colleen Alena O'Brien (Univ. of Saarland): Multimodal research and engagement: Filmmaking as a tool for understanding conflict and community outreach
- Zezhou Yang (SOAS): Venturing into the Virtual: Investigating Nepal-China Interactions in the Digital Domain During the COVID-19 Pandemic (School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS), University of London)
- Nina Khamsy (IHEID, Geneva): Entanglements of human mobility, new technologies, and EU migration policies: an ethnography of smartphones among people on the move
- Rugun Sirait (UCL): Jedag Jedug and sound memes of Indonesian TikTok

15.30-16.00 – Coffee break

16.00-17.30 – Panel 3: Urbanity, Truth-Making, and Public Engagement (Chair: Maksymilian Awuah)

- Pia Schramm (Univ. of Tübingen): Challenging Populist Truth-Making in Europe
- Arjin Taş (Univ. of Vienna): How are the urban counterinsurgency strategies, developed during the urban conflict, normalized and generalized by the state?
- Mela Žuljević (Leibniz Inst. for Regional Geography): Challenges of Multimodal Research and Public Engagement - A Participatory Design Perspective
- Zihan Xu (Univ. of Oxford): Multimodality as mediation: performing anthropological analysis

17.30-18.00 – VISION – From Convivial Playful Research on the Polish-German Border to a Multimodal Research Handbook (Iepke Rijcken & Piotr Goldstein)

